Richardson appointed to oversight committees

Representative Dennis Richardson (R-Central Point) has been appointed by the Speaker of the House Jeff Merkley to serve on the Legislative Counsel Committee and reappointed to the Legislative Administration Committee. Richardson previously served on the Legislative Counsel Committee during the 2003-05 session and as an alternate during the 2005-07 session. He served on the Legislative Administration Committee during the 2005-07 session.

“My appointment to these two committees will allow me to continue my efforts to ensure taxpayers’ dollars are well spent,” said Richardson, “The Legislature must set an example to the rest of state government by being efficient and financially responsible. I will join with my legislative colleagues in providing appropriate legislative oversight.”

The Legislative Administration Committee oversees the day to day operations at the Capitol including building repair and staff compensation.

The Legislative Counsel Committee oversees the Office of Legislative Counsel, the legislative attorneys responsible for drafting bills and publishing the Oregon Revised Statutes.
